

ANS TO HASTEN TREATY READING VEN SETBACK

rambling Debate akes Up Most of Day in Senate.

TACK RECORD OF HITCHCOCK

ASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—A to hasten senate action on peace treaty were upset again y, a rambling debate occupy-most of an afternoon that had set aside for completion of formal reading of the treaty.

hen adjournment was taken a four hour recess, only an hour's progress had been in the reading which will be med Monday.

arting with a desultory dis-on of the cause of Irish inndence the debate shifted to subjects as the obligations of the ten of the league of naions and the dismem-ent of Turkey and wound up a bitter argument about the record of Senator Hitchcock braska, the administration er in the treaty fight.

he Irish question got before senate in a resolution by Sen-Walsh, Democrat of Montana, supporter of the treaty in its tent form. His resolution prod that as soon as the United ates takes membership in the ue of nations it call attention the right of the Irish people to government. Senator Walsh ed that such a course, sug-y by President Wilson's let-ers on his western trip of the best hope for Ireland's om. Several senators replied it offered no hope at all. Sen-Penrose, Republican, Penn-sylvia, characterizing it as the wining, most insolent effort to "bribe" the Irish.

he resolution went over with-action.

he climax of the day's debate when Senator Poindexter, republican of Washington, attacked the war record of Senator Hitchcock, got a fiery reply from Nebraska senator, who de-ded his course in proposing an argo on arms and declared he d rather have the ill will of ator Poindexter than his reter.

any of Mr. Hitchcock's ut-ers before this country entered war were quoted by Senator Poindexter, who declared the for-had praised the German gov-ment, expressed sympathy for German people and condoned German atrocities.

Senator Hitchcock said he had advised the embargo bill in interest of neutrality at a when the sentiment of the try was almost unanimous the United States should out of war and that he still eved it would have been mained then and this country the sacrifices it eventually to make.

Agnes C. Booth, commander chief of the Salvation Army in frica, will be presented a distinction service medal tomor-d at New York by Maj. Gen-id C. Shanks, who will act as personal representative of ident Wilson and Secretary of War.

Miss Booth's citation, made lic today by the war depart-ent said:
For exceptionally meritorious distinguished service as comander of the Salvation Army in U. S. She has been tireless her devotion to her manifold es. The contribution of the ation Army toward winning war is conspicuous and the res obtained were due in mark-degree to the great executive ity of this commander."

ED SPEAKS IN NEW YORK

New York, Oct. 18.—The lea-of nations was characterized a combination of great pow-to impose their will upon the ld" by Senator Reed of Mis-at a meeting tonight in option to the league.

EMPT TO DEFEAT APPEAL FAILS

he supreme court denied the

OTHER CREDIT TO ITALY

Washington, Oct. 18.—A credof $1,000,000 to Italy was an-ced today by the treasury, ing $1,620,922,872 advanced that country and a total of $7,419,494 to all the allies.

Big Industrial Parley Reaches An Agreement

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—A tentative agreement on collective bargaining was reached by the general committee of the national industrial conference tonight after an all day session. Committee members will consult with their respective groups tomorrow and final action on framing a report to the conference will be taken by the general committee tomorrow night. The tentative declaration retained the form of the original and was broken up into twelve different parts, each item stating a specific principle in order to be readily subject to amendment.

The conference in the commission which totalled eight hours hinged almost entirely on the right of "outsiders" to represent employees in negotiations with employers. The committee recessed frequently to allow the labor and capital groups to caucus and during the day numerous drafts of a declaration were submitted and rejected.

In a statement today C. S. Barrett, president of the Farmers' National Cooperative Union and a member of the employers' group of the conference declared agriculture generally would support labor in its demand that the right of collective bargaining be recognized by the industrial conference.

"Organized labor has asked that the conference endorse its position on collective bargaining," he said, "that it make known to the country that labor may if it chooses, meet with heads of industry and arrange basis for the adjustment of wages, housing conditions and other matters which affect employment. This position, to my mind, is correct and I don't see how I can oppose it without stultifying myself. The national board of farm organizations has officially endorsed the Capper-Hieman bill. This bill gives to the farmers the clear right to collectively dispose of the products.

"Collective buying and collective selling are as general policies inevitable. It will be impossible for this conference to prevent their consummation."

ANTI-BOLSHEVIK ON HEELS OF REDS

Only Miracle Can Save Petrograd From General Yudenitch's Forces.

London, Oct. 18.—(By The Associated Press.)—Petrograd tonight was so closely invested by the anti-Bolshevik forces, according to the latest official advices that military experts expressed the belief that little short of a miracle could save the hard pressed Bolsheviks. Indeed one newspaper dispatch reported General Yudenitch's cavalry in the capital.
But there is no confirmation of this.

Neither had British official confirmation been received of the reported surrender of Kronstadt, alho the war office states that the Estonians on Friday operating in conjunction with Yuden-itch, got within four miles of the Krasna Gorka, facing Kronstadt. Thus, Kronstadt would be in a dangerous position as with the capture of Petrograd, it would be cut off.

Coincident with these reports comes a vitriolic announcement by Leon Trotsky, the Bolshevik war minister, referring to a "pack of Bourgeois forces" warring the body of soviet Russia," and declaring that Petrograd will not fall.

In the meantime, in the south, General Denikin has been pursuing his successes. But he is meeting with strenuous resistance in the Orel region where the fiercest fighting is going on.

NEWBERRY CASE IS UP AGAIN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—The department of justice announced today that after careful investigation it had decided to bring before a federal grand jury in Grand Rapids fraud charges arising out of the nomination and election of Truman H. Newberry as United States senator from Michigan.

The action is based on the announcement states on complaints filed with the department "and also public charges of fraud and corruption," made by the lieutenant governor of Michigan and others.

The case will be laid before the grand jury for the western district of Michigan, to be assembled at Grand Rapids soon by United States District Judge Sessions, Frank C. Dailey of Indianapolis, former United States district attorney for Indiana has been assigned by the department to conduct the investigation.

GOOD NEWS FOR OLD PEOPLE

PARIS, Oct. 18.—Dr. Serge Voronoff, who claims he can postpone old age by grafting interstitial glands points out in an article in the Journal today that the internal secretion of glands such as the thyroid and suprarenal continue alive for three hours after the death of the body and therefore advocates that bodies of young and healthy persons killed in accidents should be rushed to special hospitals where patients are suffering from curable maladies.

MAYNARD WINNER OF GREAT CROSS COUNTRY AIR RACE

Complete Trip to Minneapolis at 1:55:05 Saturday.

FLYING TIME ABOUT 50 HOURS

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Lieutenant Belvin W. Maynard won the transcontinental airplane race today by landing at Minneapolis, N. Y., at 1:55:05 on his return trip from San Francisco, after an elapsed time of slightly more than ten days, three of which were spent in San Francisco, under the rules, and another being lost in repairing his machine at Cheyenne, Wyo., on the westward trip and at Wahoo, Nebraska on the homeward flight. Just how many hours of the six days actual flying he consumed in the air has not been calculated, but was slightly under 50 hours for the 5,402 miles.

Second in the race tonight, with an enforced delay over Sunday under the rules was Captain J. O.
Donaldson, who today reached Buffalo on the second continental crossing 323 miles from the finish. Next in the contest was Lieutenant H. H. Manzelman, at Rock Island, Ill., with 905 miles separating him from the goal at Minneapolis.

Third place in pursuit of Maynard's record was held jointly by Captain Lowell Smith and Lieutenant H. B. Queens, west bound, who reached Cheyenne, Wyo., tonight, 1005 miles from their destination. They were closely followed by Lieutenant B. C. Kiel, first to reach the Atlantic from the Pacific, who flew to Sidney, Neb., today, 1,998 miles from San Francisco.

Captain Alex Pearson, who had been Lieutenant Maynard's nearest contender until he broke down at North Platte, Neb., 1,491 miles from New York was still there tonight, sixth behind Maynard.
He expected to resume his flight eastward on Monday after installing the mate of the Martin bomber plane borrowed by the "flying parson" when he broke his crankshaft at Wahoo, Neb.

Of the eleven flyers who have made the first crossing, only two others remain in the contest—Lieutenant H. W. Sheridan, sunday Sunday at Salt Lake City, 2,083 miles from New York, and Lieutenant R. S. Worthington, westbound, at Buffalo, 2,348 miles from San Francisco.

Of the 62 who started in the race only twenty-nine managed to make the first lap of 2,701 miles, the rules providing that those who did not arrive before sundown today would be disqualified. Captain Felix Stelnie, the man to borrowed plane at 4 o'clock was the last aviator to get in under the time limit. The only man to reach New York today was Lieutenant Paul Richter.

Of the other thirty-three starters, a dozen smashed their machines, causing the deaths of seven aviators or observers, while the rest were only able to get within striking distance of the first objective, too late to qualify.
At least three of those completing the first lap will not start back.
There were three wrecks today, but no one was hurt. Major A. H. Kilkenson, trailer of the westbound contingent, hit a ditch in landing at Rawlins, Wyo. Lieutenant D. B. Gish wrecked his plane on reaching San Francisco and Major Harry Abbey fell at Auburn, California, only a hundred miles from the finish of the first lap.

A Great Triumph.
Washington, Oct. 18.—Completion of the transcontinental air derby "plainly demonstrates that the isolation of the United States with respect to Asia and Europe is completely broken," declared General William Mitchell, chief of operations of the army air service, declared in a statement tonight to the Associated Press.

"The airline distance covered, General Mitchell said, "is 5,402 miles in less than 50 hours of actual flying time. It is as far as from Constantinople to New York; from Berlin to Denver; from Tokyo to San Francisco; and vice versa the distance from Europe to America."

I. W. W. GIVEN SENTENCE

Leavenworth, Kans., Oct. 18.— Petro Pierre, a member of the Industrial Workers of the World, was found guilty by a jury in the federal court today on a charge of threatening the life of President Wilson. He was sentenced to serve three and one half years in the federal penitentiary here and upon his giving notice of appeal bond was fixed at $7,000.
The verdict was reached in twenty minutes.

Americanization Day October 27.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 18.—In a proclamation, Governor Frank O. Lowden today designated Monday, October 27, as Americanization day in Illinois.

Observance of the date, the anniversary of the birth of the late Theodore Roosevelt, is part of a nationwide program.
The proclamation reads as follows:

"We are learning as we never learned before that the greatness of America is measured not so much by its wealth or its natural resources, as by the quality of its citizenship. We have boasted too much in the past of our growth in population, and have been too careless of the Americanization of our population. It matters little whether we have a few millions more or less people. It matters everything that all our people shall be imbued with the American spirit, shall be moved by American ideals of government and be devoted to the American flag. Our gates have been flung wide open to the liberty-loving peoples of the earth, who have sought refuge from tyranny and oppression. Our citizenship has been enlarged and strengthened by the influx of foreign blood. Our civilization has been enriched by the contributions our immigrants have brought. But not all who have come from foreign lands have become transmutated into Americans. It has been partly our own fault. We have been careless of the conditions surrounding them when they arrived. We have encouraged the isolation in which those who speak a foreign language must in a measure live. However, we are awakening to the need of the Americanization of all our people. We see that we are safe only if we Americanize our foreign immigrants as they come to our shores.

"There are some, it is true, who come among us, not to share the blessings of our free government but to destroy it.
They are coming in increasing numbers. These cannot be Americanized, but they can be and should be returned to the country whence they came. Our flag was not designed by the fathers to shelter those who seek to destroy it.

"Among the most effective agencies in the work of Americanization now going on are our public schools. They do not content themselves with their work upon children of school age, but are reaching out and gathering in the parents, teaching them the English tongue, American history and American ideals."

"In response to a nation-wide movement, I designate October twenty-seventh as Americanization day. On this day, Theodore Roosevelt was born. His robust and fearless Americanism was a bugle call to his countrymen whenever danger threatened from within or without. Surely no more fitting day could be selected for Americanization day than the day of his birth. Upon that day I urge our people, without regard to party, race or religion, to assemble and take measures for the Americanization of all the people in their several communities. I earnestly urge upon the schools of the state that they hold appropriate exercises for impressing anew upon the minds of the boys and girls of the state American ideals and American aspirations, and the solemn duty of genuine Americans to combat with all their might the destructive foreign doctrines which are being imported to our shores.

"Given under my hand and the great seal of state at the capitol in Springfield, this eighteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and forty-fourth."

Davison Gives Public Policy First Report of Questions Will Red Cross Work Be On Ballett

first complete picture of the activities of the American Red Cross during the war is given in the report of the war council of the organization, headed by Henry P. Davison, the first installment of which was made public today.

It shows that between May 1917 and February 28, 1919 the American Red Cross received a total of $400,000,000 for relief work, $285,500,000 of which came from war drives. Of that sum $41,339,337 in securities and $52,703,044 in supplies remaining available in February.

Beginning the twentieth month war period with an available relief fund of $3,134,904 and a membership of 486,194 adults, the organization built up its membership to 20,000,000 adults and 11,000,000 juniors. Membership dies alone during the war period brought in $42,000,000.

Proceeds of the two war drives went into a war fund to be used exclusively for war relief and interest earnings accruing added $2,766,103. It was estimated that more than 43,000,000 persons contributed to the second drive.

Enumerating the activities of the Red Cross during the war the reports say $71,577,000 relief articles were produced by volunteer workers that the families of 500-000 soldiers were aided; that refreshments for 40,000,000 were served in Red Cross canteens; that 23,822 nurses were enrolled; that more than fifteen million men were served in canteens in France, nearly two million French refugees aided, nearly 150,000 wounded in Italy carried in Red Cross ambulances; moving property furnished for more than 3-000,000 American soldiers in France, French hospitals supplied with more than four million gallons of nitric oxide and oxygen and 155,000 Italian children cared for.

PLAN LEGISLATION RETURNING R. R. TO PRIVATE OWNERS

Senate Commerce
Committee Completes Bill.

U. S. WILL SUPERVISE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Permanent railroad legislation was advanced a step today, the senate interstate commerce committee completing work on its bill providing for return of the railroads to private ownership and operation under strict government supervision and with drastic provisions against strikes or lockouts.

The bill is to be reported out early next week and placed in position for senate debate if disposal of the Versailles treaty is finished, with leaders planning its passage next month.

The prohibition against aiding strikes was inserted, committee members said to reach both radicals and labor leaders who "aid, abet, counsel, command, induce or procure" action toward a strike.

In order that grievances of employees may be heard and adjusted the committee provided for the establishment of a general and regional committee on railway wages and working conditions to be composed equally of railway employees and employers.

In its principal features the final committee bill is similar to the original Cummings draft. It provides for return of the roads within thirty days after enactment to private operation and control under regulation of the the interstate commerce commission and a new federal transportation board. Creation of not less than fifteen or more than twenty-five competitive, regional railroad systems by the transportation board is proposed and the interstate commerce commission is authorized to fix rates which will make certain a return of at least 1-2 per cent on the actual value of the railroads in the regional system plus half of one per cent for improvements.

Earnings above six per cent are to be divided between the carriers and the board.

In adjusting finances of the railroads and the government at the end of the government control the bill proposes that the government accept the railroads long term notes for indebtedness to the government of about $400-000,000, payable within ten years at 6 per cent interest.

On other indebtedness the bill authorizes the president to accept short term demand notes. The president also is authorized to extend obligations of the carriers which have accrued during government control or to exchange them for other securities.

HINES SENDS LETTER TO RAILROAD MEN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Director General Hines today addressed a letter to "officers and employees" urging fair and impartial observance of the national agreement covering the 500,000 shop employees, effective on Monday.

"It is highly important that misunderstandings be avoided," Mr. Hines said, "but where such misunderstandings do arise, the direct assistance under the agreement of active means of investigation and settlement. Because a shortage of transportation exists it is particularly important that repair and inspection forces, both officers and employees, join in giving the best that is in them in their work and that attention to their work shall not be impaired by disputes."

Mr. Hines references to the means for adjusting disputes amicably attracted attention because of recent unrest among the shop employees who have voted to strike for higher wages unless the government succeeds in bringing down the cost of living. This vote empowered the national officers to call a strike when advisable.

SEEK U. S. ASSISTANCE

Vienna, Oct. 18.—(By The A. P.)—Resolutions asking American assistance for Vienna, so that the city might be able to avoid the winter were adopted by the city council last night. The resolutions call attention to the deplorable condition of the city and point out that the prospect for betterment is poor.

Jacob Reumann, burg-master of Vienna has appealed to the American authorities for permission to go to the United States to raise funds to save Vienna from starvation. Only a fortnight's cereal supply is reported on hand.

CASE DISMISSED

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 18.—Myer J. Stein's petition for a writ of mandamus to compel County Clerk Switzer of Cook county to certify to Governor Lowden the death of Judge Thomas J. Scully in order to bring about an election was dismissed by the supreme court late today on the ground that it was without jurisdiction.

Wilson Has Good Day, Operation Is Unnecessary

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—President Wilson rested comfortably today and his physicians were increasingly hopeful that the pros-tatic complications which have retarded his recovery would not necessitate an operation.

Rear-Admiral Grayson held another consultation with Dr. Hugh Young, the Baltimore specialist called in yesterday. Dr. Francis X. Dercum, noted neurologist of Philadelphia also being present on his regular weekly visit to the president as were Rear-Admiral Stitt, Drs. Sterling Ruffin, and H. A. Fowler, of this city.

Dr. Grayson said the visit today of Doctors Young and Dercum did not mean a change for the worse in the patient's condition.
On the contrary he said, the president seemed to have responded to treatment by Dr. Young yesterday and after a good night's rest was comfortable and cheerful today.

Early Bulletin.

The morning bulletin said:
"White House, Oct. 18, 1919.
11:20 A. M."

"The president rested well last night. There is no material change in his general condition.
No new symptoms have developed."

"Grayson."
"Ruffin."
"Stitt."

Aside from the prostatic complication the president's nervous condition was not expected by his physicians to permit his return to his desk at an early date, and the rest treatment prescribed will be continued.

Evening Bulletin.

The bulletin issued at ten o'clock tonight follows:
"The president had a comfortable day. He has been taking abundant nourishment and is somewhat stronger. The improvement in the prostatic condition has been maintained very satisfactorily and no change in the simple treatment employed is contemplated."

(signed). "Grayson."
"Dercum."
"Young."
"Ruffin."
"Stitt."

The president passed the best day he has known since his present illness began. Rear-Admiral Cerv T. Grayson, his physician said tonight. No operation will be necessary and the patient is making slow but satisfactory progress toward recovery from his nervous exhaustion, Dr. Grayson said.

The program of complete rest from official cares prescribed by the physicians will be continued.
Dr. Grayson indicated that he would not favor referring any bill to the president for signature at present, unless it was one on which he desired to exercise his veto power.

STEEL STRIKE ENTERS FIFTH WEEK

Interest Focused on Result of Secret Session of 200 Strike Leaders Saturday.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—With the end of the fourth week in the steel strike interest in the Chicago district was focused tonight on a secret session opened here today by strike leaders said to be number 200.

Alho the avowed purpose of the gathering was the discussion of conditions among the strikers and means of furthering organized labor's aims, a report was current that the meeting was to consider terms of an armistice reported to have been offered the workmen.

John W. DeYoung, chairman of the district council for steel and iron workers, just before he called the meeting to order, issued a statement denying a truce was to be considered. "All I can say about the meeting," DeYoung stated, "is that we are about to lay plans for a long fight."

He added that sessions might last over Sunday because of a mass of details before the conference. Rumors that the troops were to be withdrawn from Gary, Ind., stern center of the strike were denied tonight by Col.
W. S. Mapes, commanding the military forces in that city.

An estimate that 1,000 Roumanians will have applied for passports within the next few days. If present indications are fulfilled, was made today by J.
Pepper, deputy revenue collector, who declared striking steel workers at the rate of 150 a day are leaving the United States.

HAVE LITTLE HOPE OF EVERTING COAL MINERS STRIKE

Lewis Declares That All Demands Must Be Met.

OPERATORS ALSO STAND PAT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—There seemed little hope tonight of averting the strike of half a million bituminous coal miners, called for November 1.

After a series of conferences with labor leaders here and telephone talks with others in the central coal territory, John L.
Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, announced that the mines would go out unless all demands, including

WHAT WOULD CHADSEY DO?

The Chicago Board of Education fight is on again in earnest with the prospect that former President Loeb may be permanently reinstated. This may mean Charles Chadsey once more filling the office of superintendent of schools. Mr. Chadsey is now employed at the University of Illinois. His salary as Chicago superintendent of schools would be $12,000 a year more than he is now receiving, and it is a safe guess that he will not turn down an opportunity to re-enter the Chicago field.

BENEATH THE SURFACE

Some of the public men who are seeking to bring about a settlement of the promised miners' strike say that there is more behind the movement than the demand for an exorbitant increase in wages and shorter hours. They charge that the radical leaders of the miners organization are seeking nationalization of the mines and have taken this critical time of short production and great demand to bring about a crisis.

No matter what the motive, the federal government should deal with the situation promptly and effectively and prevent a strike. Only federal authority can do it. The most unfavorable factor in the situation is in the radical view held by some high government officials on industrial and economic questions.

There is still another cause for uneasiness in the relationship there may be between the miners and other branches of organized labor on this nationalization question.

THE WORTHY Y. M. C. A. CAUSE

The Jacksonville Y. M. C. A. is this week to enter upon a campaign to raise a necessary fund of $7,000. It is purposed through a definite organized effort to get this matter cleared up and out of the way in a very few days' time. The campaign committee hopes to accomplish this in the period mentioned because it realizes that the Y. M. C. A. needs no introduction to the people and that everybody is familiar with its good work. Aside from its contribution to the better influence of a community, the Y. M. C. A. is a business asset. Large commercial industries recognize the value of the Y. M. C. A. in their organizations and sustain special branches for the benefit of their employees. Others inquire specifically as to Y. M. C. A. conditions before locating manufacturing plants. No one can dispute the influence of the Y. M. C. A. in directing the lives of young men along the right paths of living, or in the matter of physical development.

There have been criticisms of the Y. M. C. A. in its war service, but most of those who are fair-minded know that the mistakes were few by comparison with the great task that the Y. M. C. A. performed during the war period—by comparison with the great benefits that accrued to the soldiers in cantonments and at the front.

These annual campaigns for funds are necessary in every city where a Y. M. C. A. is maintained unless the Y. M. C. A. is fortunate enough to have an endowment fund or to have resources other than those which come merely from membership dues. Some of the best known citizens of Jacksonville vouch for its Y. M. C. A. organization and are willing to give their time and money that it may exist. They are expecting, and have a right to expect, cordial consideration on the part of their fellow citizens.

THE PROSPECTS BRIGHTER.

It is at any time you feel gloomy and generally pessimistic about the present and future, just take a walk down East State street. Although paving materials are exceedingly scarce and the lack of cement has interfered with the progress of the job, the foundation for the paving between the rails of the street car company is nearly all laid and in a few weeks' time the bricks will be in place. Now if the city can only conjure up the same amount of paving strength, East State street will again become one of the most admired thoroughfares of Jacksonville just as it was years ago before the condition of the paving made it almost impassable.

THE HIGH COST OF LOADING.
Talking about the familiar theme of the high cost of living, the Philadelphia Corn Exchange bank has compiled some interesting figures to show the high cost of loading. Not many people think of this phase of the question, but with the higher wages and higher living costs, loading is a much more expensive luxury than used to be the case.

The article, which is quoted from Wallace's Farmer, says: "It is the high cost of loading, and not the high cost of living, that is troubling America today. We are producing less per hour per man and we are consuming more per hour per man than was the rule before the war. Investigations by a large manufacturing concern in Philadelphia showed that the product per man per hour, under identical circumstances today and before the war, is one third less at the present time than in the past, this notwithstanding an increase of 100 per cent in wages. In an investigation covering several states it was developed that the wage per man per hour had increased 240 per cent, coincidentally that the product per man had decreased 62 per cent. These instances tell the same story, not of increased wages—these have been common to all times and to all countries, but to a wide-spread habit of doing less work per hour. There can be only one result to this plan of action if pursued, and that is a continual advance of prices, an end to the creation of new wealth, with the republic simply running on the momentum acquired in other years until that momentum is exhausted."

THE END OF DEBATE PERHAPS.
The public will agree on this point, even if all the U. S. senators do not—that they look hopefully toward the end of debate on the peace treaty affairs. Some senator has made the rosy prophecy that the debate will be closed, action taken and adjournment of congress come by Nov. 10. Let us look forward hopefully.

THE RED CROSS IN A VITAL WORK.

The Red Cross society is under taking work as great as anything in its past in a department now to be developed. The organization proposes to afford training and instruction for women everywhere in the main branches of nursing, hygiene and dietetics. Courses in these important things are now offered in many public schools and opportunities have been given to women not of school age for special courses of study, ago the activities of civic organizations. Now the Red Cross purposes to carry on this work on a much larger scale than it has ever been attempted in the past.

This movement is certainly one which attacks disease, mal-nutrition and improper sanitation at a vital point. It proposes to teach young and old how to combat certain diseases, what goods are nutritious and why fresh air and clean habits are essential to good health.

The splendid effects expected cannot be brought about in a year but with the passage of a reasonable amount of time many of the ills which physicians, public health and social workers now seek to cure will have been prevented. After all, prevention not a cure, is the essence of the most efficient public health work. The Red Cross, as usual, has gone after a vital problem in the most feasible, vigorous way possible.

THERE'S NO USE TRYING.
Attorney General Palmer has made some mighty good suggestions on lowering living costs, but he is tackling one phase of the question in which he will never succeed. He purposes through a general campaign to persuade women to lower the cost of living by using their influence against styles. Mr. Palmer and his associates figure that 20 to 35 per cent of the cost of woman's apparel lies in the fact of style changes. Even in fighting the H. C. L. there is no use attempting the impossible.

Social Events

Elite Club Dance

Eighty five couples attended the dance of the Elite Dancing club in Degen's hall Saturday evening. Music was furnished by Labby's Jazz band and the occasion proved a most pleasurable one.

Entertained For Miss Edna Hackett

Among the recent social events in honor of Miss Edna Hackett, whose marriage will occur in the near future, was a four table bridge party given Monday afternoon by the Misses McMurphy at their home on West College avenue. A color scheme of yellow and white was used with charming effect, these colors predominating in the decorations and the refreshments also were in harmony with the general color scheme.

On Wednesday afternoon Miss Dorothy Rogerson was hostess to a number of young women, the affair being a kitchen rush for Miss Hackett. The guest of honor was the recipient of a large number of useful gifts, and the afternoon was a very pleasant one for all in the company.

Surprise Party.

A pleasant surprise was planned on Mrs. Lulu Barnhart Friday evening when a number of neighbors called to remind her of her birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ranson and daughter, Faye; Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Ragan and daughters, Mildred and Olive; Mr. and Mrs. Ross Stainforth and two sons, Chester and Clement and their guest, Mrs. Lou Watt, of Ashland; Mrs. John Welsh and daughters, Bertha, Elizabeth, and Mary; Misses Ruth and Irene Hamel, and Harold Hamel. The evening was spent in a social way. All left at a late hour wishing Mrs. Barnhart many more happy birthdays.

Jacksonville College Club Meets Saturday

The Jacksonville College Club met in the parlors of Academy Hall Saturday afternoon at four o'clock with a good number of the membership in attendance. It was the first meeting of the year and was in the nature of an informal tea. A short business session was held with the president, Mrs. Alpha B. Applebee presiding. It was decided to hold five meetings during the year and the executive committee will name a committee soon to arrange for these meetings. Out of town members present included Mrs. J. C. Groat of Winchester and Miss Norma Perib of near Chapin.

Are Entertained.

Returned soldiers of the Hebrew community were given a reception and entertainment Friday afternoon and evening at the country home of Arthur Swain. The affair was in charge of the Young Men's Bible class of Hebrew M. E. church. Thirty persons were present including former soldiers, members of the class and guests.

At 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, a ball game was staged between picked nines. Ulysses Fox captained one of the nines and Harold Swain the other. Fox's aggregation downed their opponents by a score of 7 to 2. Batteries for the Fox team were Fox and Horace Swain; for the Swain nine, Ragan and Harold Swain. Time of game, 1:48.

Next on the program of the afternoon was a blue rock shoot. Fifteen men participated in the shoot and about 375 rounds were fired. The finals were shot by George Ward, Ulysses Fox, Harold Swain and Horace Swain. The latter claimed championship with a perfect score.

During the shoot pictures were taken by a Sinclair photographer. These will be kept by the men as remembrances of the day.

About six o'clock the merry-makers adjourned to the Swain residence and enjoyed a three-course luncheon, prepared by the ladies present. Mr. Swain is teacher of the Young Men's class of the church and his hospitality was highly appreciated by all. Following the luncheon the young men decided to "play fair" and took charge of the kitchen while the ladies present were served in fine style by them.

The table in the dining room bore a large bouquet of flowers sent by Mrs. Martha Fox as a token to the former soldiers.

The remainder of the evening was spent in singing and a general good time. Returned men present were: Albert Swain, Grover Lewis, Harold Swain, Ulysses Fox, P. E. Naulty, Harold Stewart, Horace Swain, and Rev. Raye L. Ragan, new pastor of the Hebrew church. Class members attending were: James Wilson, Charles Curtis, Albert Wilson, Newton Wilson, Chester Wilson, George Ward, Lewis Ward, Dan Ward, Irvin T. Emmerson, Lee Stice, John Gaither, Willis Hopper, Henry Daubard, E. N. Haingrove, E. J. McDowd, Clyde Martin, W. T. Richardson, Albert Hopper and Harry Martin. The guests of honor were: The Misses Helen and Alice Swain of Prentice; Margaret Curtis of Strawn's Crossing; Ollie Stewart, Irma Fox, Anna Mae Wilson and Isabelle Swain of Sinclair; Amos Swain of Sinclair was also present.

Neighborhood Farewell.

A surprise was planned and successfully carried out for Mrs. C. W. Hamilton of 707 North East street by twelve of her neighbors who gathered at her home at 3:00 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Hamilton is soon to move to her new home at 419 East North street and the gathering was planned as a farewell before her departure. A social hour was spent. The Misses Agnes Devlin and Gladys Hamilton gave several piano numbers. Dainty refreshments were brought by the guests and they also presented Mrs. Hamilton with a beautiful picture of the Madonna, with well wishes for a long and happy life in her new home.

Twentieth Wedding Anniversary

Saturday was the twentieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Capps and in honor of the occasion their daughter, Mary Jeanette, planned a neighborhood surprise. Friends of the family from the neighborhood to the number of twenty thus became guests at the Capps home Saturday night. It was both a successful surprise and celebration which Mr. and Mrs. Capps and the others in the company thoroughly enjoyed. Although it was such an informal occasion, there were a number of gifts of a kind to indicate the number of the anniversary. The refreshments were of a generous kind.

Rev. and Mrs. J. O. Kirkpatrick Married 25 Years.

Rev. and Mrs. J. O. Kirkpatrick observed their 25th wedding anniversary informally Saturday at the West Jacksonville district parsonage. Sixty or more of their parishioners from Ebenezer and the Point churches called on them during the afternoon and the hours were very happily spent. The pastor and his wife issued no invitations but merely kept open house and indicated to the church people that they would be pleased to have them call. Mrs. Kirkpatrick before her marriage was Miss Anna Beggs and their wedding took place at the Beggs farm near Ashland. Rev. George Stevens was the officiating minister. Although it had been made known that no gifts were expected, the pastor and his wife found a purse of $25 from the people of Ebenezer and a set of solid silver spoons from the members of the Point church. There were other gifts too, to attest esteem and good will. Rev. Mr. Kirkpatrick is one of the well known ministers of this Methodist conference and is serving his present charge most

Rippling Rhymes By Walt Mason

THE CAUSE

All the world is in commotion, forty kinds of dust we raise; every gent with crazy notion has an audience these days; all the peoples rise and clamor for new avenues to tread; every fellow has a hammer, and he'd bash another's head. And the man who once was kaiser, says, while people cut up thus, "I'm the little early riser who kicked up this beastly fuss." No one's with his work contented, every voter scorns his job; and the autumn air is scented with the curses of the mob. Now that industry is needed, industry is lying low; and the countries all are seeded to the dragons' teeth of war. Cold the forges of the founder, all deserted is the mill; and the demagogue and boulder aren't for an instant still. Now no stream of smoke is pouring from the lofty stacks of brick, and no looms disturb the roaring of the anarchistic hick. And the man who once was kaiser, says, as on the fence he leans, "I'm the blatant advertiser who upset the dish of beans." Say the nations, "We shall haul him to the court, and treat him rough;" but no fate that could befall him would be punishment enough. So perhaps we'd better let him linger where he saws and sings; better pass up and forget him, while we try to straighten things.

BUY COAL THIS WEEK!

We have been preaching for some time on the advisability of buying coal early. Many have heeded our advice—but there remains quite a number who have not. To those we say—buy your coal this week. The unsettled condition of labor demands it. Cold weather soon will be upon us. Don't be caught with an empty bin. We guarantee honest weights and honest coal.

The Opal Myth
By Harriet Henderson
Do you know how beautiful the opals are? The noble and precious opal with its wonderful play of delicate colors; the fire opal with vivid flame-like reflections; the common and semi-opals of milk-white, bluish, greenish, yellowish and many other different shadings. Have you thought them lovely but unlucky? Many people think this, but few can tell why opals are believed to be unlucky.
In olden times the opal was one of the most highly esteemed gems. It was supposed to bring good luck and to make its wearer beloved. Research shows that it was in the early part of the 19th century that people began to associate opals and bad luck. Sir Walter Scott in "Anne of Geirne" one of his later novels, introduced an opal which was supposed to possess magic powers which brought disaster and tragedy to all who came within its influence. It was a myth born in Scott's imagination, but this story, like his others, was widely read. The opal myth caught the popular fancy, and the superstition that all opals are unlucky began. Soon after Scott's novel was published, the Lightning Ridge opal fields in Australia were discovered, and when Queen Victoria ascended the British throne, in 1837, her Australian subjects sent her a coronation gift of some magnificent opals.
"Nothing so beautiful," said the young queen, "could be unlucky," and from that time on she waged war on the unlucky superstition. She wore opals in profusion on state occasions, she gave them as bridal presents to relatives and sent them as royal gifts.
Many people have dared disbelieve this fiction, and buy, and wear, and enjoy opals with their triest beauty, but still the myth persists, and it has cost dealers many thousands of dollars and has robbed the gem of its rightful popularity.
When next you look at a collection of opals with their lustrous play of colors see if you do not share the royal surety that nothing so beautiful could bring ill-luck.

DEAR TIM:—

Say Tim I was at the Y again last night and you should have seen that fire in that old fire place. It sure helps to thaw out that "fellow feeling," and makes you feel comfortable. Gee, boy, you shure will like it when you get your membership.

I met Bill there and he had on a new suit. He said it was a 100% wool, and said that some time ago one of that firm had helped him get a membership and so he wanted to do what he could for them. He said he knew of a lot of business men who liked real fellows so well that they gave money to the "Y" every year for boys membership.

He said he got his friend Sam to take a membership and the work in the gym cured his dizziness, and now he can out run me and pull himself up by his arms twelve times without stopping. I will write you again Sunday, but you had better come Monday and see for yourself.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 18.—The fourth week of the strike in the steel mills of the Pittsburgh district ended tonight with the employers declaring their men were returning to work in increasing numbers every day and the strike leaders insisting their figures showed that steel production in the Pittsburgh district is only ten per cent of normal.

The only disorder reported during the day was the arrest of a dozen women and eight men in Pittsburgh charged by the police with annoying workmen and attacking policemen. Each was fined $10 with the alternative of a jail sentence of ten days. Some of the women were accompanied by their children and the din in the court room became such that the magistrate ordered all the children sent to their homes.

DISCIPLES OF CHRIST

HOLD STORMY SESSION

CINCINNATI, Oct. 18.—Resolutions adopted at the "congress" of the conservatives of the Disciples of Christ convention, who met in separate session early in the week protesting against growing tendencies in favor of higher criticism, rationalism and "open membership" (membership without immersion) and presented to the regular convention were disposed of today by recommending them to the committee on recommendations. This means that they are buried so far as this convention is concerned, as they cannot be reported back until the next annual gathering.

A stormy half hour ensued when Rev. C. C. Crawford of Albia, Iowa, demanded that A. E. Cory, G. H. Lewis and R. H. Hopkins, secretaries of the American Christian society say where they stood on the question on the divinity of Christ and their position regarding the federation of churches and whether this position was in keeping with the "restoration movement."

Each of the secretaries questioned vigorously upheld his loyalty.

SIMPLE HOME REMEDY
ADVISED FOR ROSE
AND HAY FEVER

Anyone Can Make a Pint for Trifling Sum and Used in Time May Prevent Annual Attack.

"No matter how severe your yearly attack be. No matter how distressing or humiliating—its intensity can be reduced to a harmless, mildness," says a Kentucky druggist who believes from what he has seen that this simple home made remedy is a most important discovery.

He has seen the most severe and apparently unquarable cases reduced to what might be called a mild cold in twenty-four hours. In many cases where the patient started treatment a week or ten days before the expected attack the unwelcome yearly visitor failed to appear with anything like its usual intensity.

People who want to try this new treatment can make a pint in a few minutes.

Pour one ounce of Mentholized Arcline into a pint bottle then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled. Gargle daily as directed and snuff or spray the nostrils twice daily.

That's all there is to the treatment which so many sufferers have found to be a true friend. Mentholized Arcline in one ounce vials is dispensed by all the better pharmacies.

FASCINATING TEETH

How Every Woman Can Quickly Charm Her Friends With Lovely Teeth, Clean, White and Brilliant

If you want the cleanest of white teeth and healthy gums free from disease, an easy and quick way to get both is to use a tooth paste so effective and perfect that astonishing results usually come in a week's time.

And the cost is so little. Just 10 to any drug or department store and get a large tube of SENRECO TOOTH PASTE for 35 cents.

Not only will it make your teeth clean and white, but it will at once remove any filmy coating, help to check the ravages of Pyorrhea and banish acidity in the mouth.

It is used by thousands of dentists and its sale has been remarkable. When you visit your dentist, which you should do at least twice a year, ask him about SENRECO. It's a most delightful and refreshing tooth paste.

RECALLING THE BENDER CASE

The case of Rufus King of Maple Hill, Kas., the former liveryman upon whose premises numerous skeletons have been unearthed and identified, may yet eclipse the one big criminal record of Kansas history—the Bender family.

Three bodies have been found up to date on the place once owned by King, and each one has been identified as a former resident of the little Wabaunsee County town. King is under arrest on the charge of having murdered the men.

The case recalls the Bender family, always an interesting topic of discussion in Kansas because it always has been shrouded in mystery. Kansas has read and heard more romance about the Bender family than about the heroic days of the free state fight. The truth has never been told, probably for the reason that those who knew the truth about the Benders never told it, and they have all passed away. The Bender family passed from Kansas, also. The truth that is not known of the passing of the Benders, however, is the story that never has been related. So many stories have been told telling in how many different ways the Benders came to their fate that a cloud hangs upon all of them. Perhaps if the actual truth should now be told, no one would believe it.

There was a Bender family and they lived in the western part of Labette County, not far from Cherryvale. They were pioneers on the frontier and their little farm shack was located on the old Mission Road that led from Eastern Kansas civilization down through Independence and into the "Indian country." That the Benders were a "bad lot" appears to have been well established. In that day in Kansas—in the early '70's—the few farmhouses that stood on the prairies, particularly those that stood on the trails across the prairies, were commonly used by the travelers who were overtaken by nightfall as "stopping places." The "squatters" of that day kept open house. It was nothing for travelers to horseback in in prairie schooners to ride up to a house and call out: "Hello, there! Can you put me up for the night?" And the "sovereign squatter" who failed to answer the summons with a hearty welcome was regarded as an undesirable citizen among the hospitable frontiersmen of that day.

The Benders appear to have turned that Western hospitality to commercial profit. They made a practice of feeding travelers and "putting them up" for cash. Ugly stories were circulated about the Bender house, possibly because of that fact.

One day Dr. William York left Fort Scott on horseback to go to Independence. He did not arrive at his destination. His route would carry him by way of the Bender house, and his natural stopping place for the night would have been at the Bender home. When he disappeared searching parties went to look for him. The settlers gathered at Cherryvale and at Thayer and at other points and scoured the country in the search for the missing doctor.

The search revealed the fact that the Benders had left their "shack." The family had departed as mysteriously as the doctor had disappeared, and, apparently, about the same time. Investigating the premises, the searching parties found a new made grave in the Bender garden. There they found the body of Doctor York.

Some historians say six bodies in all were found buried in the garden—bodies and skeletons. Some others say nine. From that point the romance of the Bender family becomes involved in mystery and the romance begins.

One of the traditions of the case—the one most tenaciously held to—is that the searching party followed the trail of the departing family, overtook them in the Indian Territory, and destroyed them, including the women, one of these being Kate Bender, a daughter, famed in the tradition and romance of the case as being the real leader of the group and the most fiendish of them all.

Other stories say that the family escaped, and on numerous occasions since that time the discovery of the Benders has been heralded to the world, but the family has not been discovered. No trace has been found. All of which is taken as confirmation or the fact that the grim searchers who followed them, found them, extinguished them, and, then, as the tradition goes, entered into an oath that the thing never should be told.

If the truth really could be learned of the Bender family in all probability it would destroy practically all of the traditions which Kansas has been building about the case for the past forty years. Certainly it would destroy not less than 99 per cent of the stories of the fate of the Benders, and of the number of their victims, and of the preparation made for their disappearance, because no two of the volumes of them that have been written agree as to the main facts or the minor details of the famous Bender case.

this evening after one of the most successful ventures of the kind in the history of the organization. From the standpoint of attendance, from the standpoint of the quality of the programs offered, and from the standpoint of the interest shown in practically all of the departments of the institute, the affair was one of great success.

The largest crowd for any one program was that in attendance at the lectures Friday evening. There was not room enough in the large auditorium to accommodate all those who wished to hear the speakers and many were turned away on account of the inadequate seating capacity.

Saturday morning over five hundred farmers were present to witness the tractor demonstration and to hear the agricultural program that was scheduled. J. J. Thompson, agricultural adviser of the Waverly High School, had charge of the demonstration and also made a brief talk preceding the tractor test on various subjects of interest to the practical farmer. Among other things he called attention to the value of the straw spreader and its use.

Tractor Demonstration.
In a one hour test for the most ground plowed per bottom, at best average depth, the following were the result of the tractor demonstration. All of the tractors used kerosene.

Wallis Cub, Jr., pulling three 14-inch plows, plowed one and two-thirds acres at an average depth of 7.35 to 7.7 inches.

Fordson, pulling two 14-inch plows, plowed one acre, at an average depth of 7.32 to 7.7 inches.

Oil Pull, pulling three 12-inch plows, plowed one and one-third acre, at an average depth of 6.25 inches.

The following men acted as judges of the event: Charles Rohrer, John Newman and Arthur Wood.

Many Things to See.
In the afternoon the attention of the visitors was divided between looking the tractors over, inspecting the various excellent exhibits, and watching the Waverly High School football team trounce the visitors from Winchester.

LOCAL MEN RETURN FROM LEGION MEETING

John W. Larson and Ordain Fox Honored at Convention—Col. Milton J. Foxmann Will Command State Headquarters to be at Springfield.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 18.—The American Legion of Illinois, composed of men and women who served in the great world conflict, stands today a full fledged organization with officers, a state headquarters and delegates elected to the national convention to be held in Minneapolis, Nov. 10, instructed to express Illinois' wish in the nation's affairs so far as this state is concerned.

After the election of Col. Milton J. Foxmann of Chicago, as state commander this afternoon, the state convention following a lively contest, selected Springfield for state headquarters and awarded to Chicago the convention for 1920.

The convention declared in resolutions against any form of radical agitation to undermine American institutions and urged the deportation of alien enemies and all aliens who do not take out initial papers within five years after arrival in the United States. It also urged a continuation of the work now conducted under the espionage act and condemned all leniency of federal authorities to conscientious objectors.

Delegates to the national convention met this evening and elected Commander Foxmann chairman of the delegation.

A bonus for all men and women who served in the war was urged in resolutions passed by the convention but no plan was mentioned, delegates to the national meeting being left to act in their best judgment in this regard.

John W. Larson and Ordain Fox returned Saturday evening from Peoria where they attended the first convention of the Illinois branch of the American Legion which convened there Friday and Saturday.

Four hundred and fifty delegates were in attendance and much enthusiasm was shown. The local men were both honored at the convention. Mr. Larson was chosen as a member of the advisory board to the national convention to be held in Minneapolis in November. Mr. Fox was chosen as a member of the committee on constitution and by laws.

The meetings were held in the Shrine temple in Peoria and the citizens of that city showed the visitors every courtesy. Their time was so filled with the affairs of the organization, however, that they did not have much time for entertainment or sightseeing.

Earl Searcy of Springfield, who has been serving as temporary state secretary, was elected state adjutant at Peoria.

MEDICAL CLUB MEETS SATURDAY EVENING

Government Agent Discusses Problems Arising Under Harrison Drug Act.

The Jacksonville Medical Club met Saturday evening with Dr. Walter Frank, 244 Park street, seventeen members being present. The special object of the meeting was to listen to an address by Dr. Beatty, representing the U. S. Government under the Harrison Drug Act.

Dr. Beatty has been sent to cover several of the central states, to meet with city and county officials and to get the expression of their opinions as to the best method of caring for drug addicts, whether to take care of them in state institutions already provided for other purposes or have provided a separate institution.

The doctor's address was listened to with a great deal of interest and there followed a general discussion after which a motion was made and unanimously adopted that it was the sense of the Jacksonville Medical Club that drug addicts ordered confined for restraint or for treatment should be taken care of in a separate institution, as in such manner it was the local club's opinion better care could be given and unfortunates be more likely of complete recovery.

After the session elaborate refreshments were served. The guests by Mrs. Walter Frank.

JACKSONVILLE HIGH DEFEATED PITTSFIELD

Locals Defeat Pike County Team 12 to 11, Coming From Behind in Last Period—Ransdell Recovers Ball After Pittsfield Pass and Runs Sixty Yards For Touchdown.

Coming from behind in the last two periods with the score 11 to 0 against them, Jacksonville high defeated Pittsfield high at Pittsfield Saturday by a 12 to 11 score.

The game was a hard fought contest and Pittsfield had scored a touchdown, kicked field goal and forced Jacksonville to safety. The safety was made after Jacksonville had held Pittsfield for downs in the three yard line. Molohon tried a punt and the ball hit the cross bar and Green recovered it and attempted to run it out and was downed back of the goal line.

Pittsfield has a strong team and has been playing good football. They had expected to take Jacksonville into camp by a large score, but received a rude awakening.

In the third period with the score 11 to 0 in favor of Pittsfield, the Pittsfield backfield got their signals crossed and the center passed the ball. No one attempted to get the ball and it rolled out in the open field behind the Pittsfield team. Ransdell came around fast and scooped the ball up and ran sixty yards for a touchdown. The goal was missed.

After making this touchdown the Jacksonville team seemed to wake up and showed Pittsfield some real football. With Molohon, Green and Hunt carrying the ball, and aided by good interference by Lucas, the ball was carried steadily down the field. Molohon tore the Pittsfield line to pieces, often making 15 yards. He finally went over for a touchdown. The goal was missed but it gave Jacksonville the game by one point.

The entire Jacksonville team played good football, the line especially holding well when the Jacksonville goal was in danger. Molohon, Hunt and Green played great offensive football and Lucas did excellent work in running interference. The line-up:

Jacksonville	Pittsfield
Mitchell	Claus
R. Arter	Doocey
Reid	Koeppig
Smith	Hooper
Bray	Connell
Gard	Davis
Floeth	Butler
Hunt	King
Green	Platner
Molohon	Walsh

Substitutes—Ransdell for Mitchell, Arnold for Reid.

Referee—Harnoff, Illinois College.

Umpire, Zimmerman, Pittsfield.

Headlineman, Howard Reynolds, Jacksonville.

Time of periods—15 minutes.

Style Tendencies For Fall and Winter in Ladies' Suits

The question of the line along which tailored fashions will develop, which has been agitating fashion designers, is now solved.

Fitted Effects in Tailored Suits

In the jacket and skirt of suits the fitted line predominates. There has been much discussion as to what would be the effect on tailored costumes of the adoption of the stiffened hip. Obviously, if this fullness at the hips—and not only fullness, but stiffening as well—is applied to the skirts of two-piece suits the jackets will have to be cut on radically different lines from those in use during the last few years.

The fitted line, with a much curved underarm seam and shaped pieces at front and back, is already the vogue; but even this will not be sufficient to provide for the exaggerated and stiffened fullness at the hips of the dress skirts, if this idea is applied to suit skirts.

Fabrics Scarce in Many Instances

The market is still short of wool novelties for suitings, and bures, homespun and chevots continue to dominate. Broadcloths are receiving favorable mention, and are used in light weights and in high lustrous finish for dressy costumes.

Striped and plaided effects, notably in polychrome effects, are prominent.

Browns are Good

Browns, shading from tete de negre to the lightest tan, are strong; so also are greens in soft shades of olive and jade.

Colors for sports wear, however, are high, scarlet, Empire green, royal blue, bright yellow and purple being extensively employed.

Our ladies' tailoring department is under the direction of Mark Strassberg, formerly with Field's, Chicago, assisted by a corps of competent dressmakers. We shall be glad to have you call and discuss your suit and dress requirements.

GETS 28 EGGS A DAY NOW, FROM 34 HENS

Chas. C. White, Well-Known Breeder, Tells How. Costs Nothing to Try.

"I gave Don Sung to 34 utility Buff Orpingtons and the egg yield increased from 7 to 28 eggs a day. Don Sung is a wonder and I am now giving it to all my hens regularly."—Chas. C. White, Manager Cherry Hill Farm, Flackville, Ind.

Mr. White is the well known breeder and exhibitor. He wrote the above letter during bitter cold weather in December, after his test had shown a gain of 21 eggs a day from 34 hens. We will make you the same offer we made him. Here it is:

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be promptly refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) works directly on the egg-laying organs, and is also a splendid tonic. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health, makes her stronger and more active in any weather, and starts her laying.

Try Don Sung for 30 days and if it doesn't get you the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather, your money will be refunded by return mail. Get Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer or send 50 cents for a package by mail prepaid Burrell-Dugger Co., 284 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

HOME COMING FETE CLOSING AT BLUFFS

Saturday Was Final Day of Celebration in Honor of World War Veterans—School Parade a Feature.

Bluffs, Oct. 18.—Saturday evening brought to a close the long looked for "home coming" for our soldier boys and those who had the responsibility of the fete and preparations felt that the time given was well spent. While the crowd was not so large as Friday a goodly number was present. The speakers of the day were Supt. G. W. Walters of the Bluffs high school and G. C. Rockwood, vice president of the Mutual Life of Illinois of Springfield. The former gave a splendid talk along the lines of universal military training, preparedness and the league of nations. He is a strong advocate of the subject was to the point. The superintendent is no amateur on the public platform and his remarks greatly pleased his hearers. While he is superintendent of the Bluffs high school, he spent a year in France where he was promoted to the rank of lieutenant.

G. C. Rockwood gave an interesting talk on "The Ideals of American Citizenship." In brief he gave a review of the different wars of our nation and contrasted the ideals for which our flag stood as compared with those of an autocratic form of government. Mr. Rockwood is a former Bluffs boy and his friends were pleased to welcome him at this time.

Music was furnished by the band.

The school parade was planned and arranged by the grade teachers, Misses Lena Finneger, Marie Fuson, Pearl Rockwood, Zeta Merris, Minnie Chamberlain and Lillian Vannier. The young ladies spent much time upon their part of the program and the pleasing little costumes, flower girls, Red Cross nurses and other features of the parade well repaid their efforts.

Soup was served in the evening and the vaudeville, movies, grand ball, drew their usual quota, and thus the home coming was brought to a close. All of our boys have returned except Wilmer McCullom who is still overseas.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

The funeral of Mrs. John R. Henry will be held from the Woodson Presbyterian church this afternoon at 3 o'clock in charge of the Rev. Myron L. Pontius.
